7. When these matters came up on 19-09-2022, this Court has passed the following order;

"Learned counsel for the petitioner submits that the Government of Telangana has issued a notification No.501/FSS-1/2022 dated 07.01.2022 in exercise of the powers conferred under Section 30 of the Food Safety and Standards Act, 2006 prohibiting the manufacture, storage, distribution, transportation and sale of Gutka/Panmasala which contains tobacco and nicotine as ingredients and chewing Tobacco products like chap tobacco, pure tobacco, Khaini, Kharra, Scented tobacco/flavoured tobacco packed in pouches/sachets/containers in the entire State of Telangana for one (1) year with effect from 10.01.2022.

Learned counsel for the petitioner submits that one Sri Venkateshwara Traders has carried this matter to the Hon'ble Apex Court by filing SLP (C) No.20441 of 2021 and the Hon'ble Apex Court by order dated 31.03.2022 has stayed the notification dated 07.01.2022.

He submits that in spite of the said orders granted by the Hon'ble Apex Court staying the notification, the respondents still in a highhanded manner without any authority of law are seizing the stocks and registering the cases against the petitioners. He submits that the information regarding the stocks that are seized as contemplated under the provisions of criminal procedure are not intimated to the concerned court and they are not taking any steps and for no fault of the petitioners they have been put to great hardship. It is submitted that if the seized stock is surrendered before the court, the petitioners would get an opportunity to file an application before the court below under Section 451 Cr.P.C. The procedure that is adopted by the respondents is unknown to law and basing on their whims and fancies, they are registering the cases.

He submits that there are about five to six matters before this court and the first matter has come up on 07.09.2022 and thereafter also, when it is represented before this court by the learned Assistant Government Pleader for Home that the order of Hon'ble Apex Court will be communicated to all the officers in the State, still they are continuing to register the cases/seize the stocks. It is stated that on LK, J 17.09.2022, in Hanmakonda, they apprehended three persons along with an auto and seized Rs.2,75,000/- worth of Gutka and the auto from their possession.

Learned counsel for the petitioners further submits that with regard to the very same circular, when the matters were listed before the 1st Court, the Division Bench has categorically observed at "Para No.6 of the order that:

"6. We make it clear that since the entire matter is before the Supreme Court, it would not be proper on our part to have a parallel adjudication as the order of the Supreme Court would be binding on all courts and authorities. Since the Supreme Court has stayed the impugned notification vide the order dated 31.03.2022, respondents shall comply with the said order of the Supreme Court in letter and spirit".

He submits that in spite of the orders passed by the Division Bench, clarifying the situation, the respondents have no respect to the courts and to the orders passed by it and blatantly, they are violating the orders passed by the court.

Learned Assistant Government Pleader for Home submits that they have been advising the officials with regard to these cases. He seeks some more time so that they can sensitize the officers.

This court is not able to appreciate the said contention as these matters have initially come up on 07.09.2022 and on that day also, very same submission is made by the learned Assistant Government Pleader for Home.

When a circular issued by the Government is suspended by the Hon'ble Apex Court and when the Government is a party to the said litigation, it is the duty of the Principal Secretary (Home) and Director General of Police to sensitize the concerned officers about the said orders passed by the court.

This court is not able to appreciate the contention of the learned Assistant Government Pleader for Home that each and every officer has to be sensitized about this and till such time, they keep on registering the cases without any authority and the persons who are doing the business have to rush to this court.

In fact, it is also represented before this court that on behalf of the Hyderabad Zarda - Panmasala Manufactures & Merchants Welfare Association a representation was given on 25.04.2022 stating that in spite of the orders passed by the Hon'ble Apex Court, police are continuously interfering with the business and registering the cases and hence, requested the Director General of Police to instruct the concerned to follow the orders of the Hon'ble Apex Court.

He submits that so far, no action has been taken by the Director General of Police.

LK, J Learned Assistant Government Pleader for Home submits that the said representation was not filed along with the writ petition and the same has been passed on to the Bench. He submits that he needs to get instructions in this regard.

There is a clear inaction and laches on the part of the respondents in giving effect to the orders passed by the Hon'ble Apex Court as well as this court. When a notification dated 07.01.2022 issued by them was stayed by the Hon'ble Apex Court where the Government of Telangana is a party, conveniently, they have not taken any steps in implementing the said order and in a way, they kept quiet and keep on registering the cases and interfering with the business contrary to the orders passed by the Hon'ble Apex Court.

When a Division Bench of this court has further clarified that even after that also, the cases are registered at Warangal. This conduct on behalf of the respondents shows that they have no respect to the orders passed by the Hon'ble Apex Court as well as to this Court.

In this regard, a circular shall be issued by the Director General of Police to all the concerned officers about the orders of the Hon'ble Apex Court staying the notification dated 07.01.2022 issued by the State Government and also the orders passed by the Division Bench of this Court in W.P.Nos.20212 of 2022 and Batch on 08.09.2022. The said circular shall be placed before this court by 21.09.2022 or else the Director General of Police shall appear before this court.

The learned Assistant Government Pleader for Home shall also get instructions whether the seized stocks are deposited before the court or not. If it is deposited, the details with regard to the same.

Registrar, Judicial shall communicate the copy of this order to the Director General of Police today itself.

Post on 21.09.2022 in the motion list.

8. When the matters came up today, learned Assistant Government Pleader for Home has placed before this Court the Circular Memorandum dated 19-9-2022 issued by the Director General of Police, Telangana State, Hyderabad, which reads thus;
