CORAM: SMT. VIBHA KANKANWADI, J.

DATE : 9th FEBRUARY, 2022

ORDER :

1. The applicants are apprehending their arrest in connection with Crime No.430 of 2021 registered with Police Station, Gangakhed, District-Parbhani, for the offence punishable under Sections 188, 272, 273, 328 of the Indian Penal Code and Section 59 of the Food Safety and Standards Act.

2. Heard learned Advocate for the applicant and learned APP for the respondent - State.

3. It has been vehemently submitted on behalf of the applicants that perusal of the First Information Report would show that it was registered against one Noorkhan Salarkhan Pathan. It is submitted that First Information Report would show that accused Noorkhan Pathan was caught raid handed by the raiding team, who was found to be transporting banned Gutka / Tobacco packets on the two wheeler which was not having any number plate. It is the further prosecution story that on interrogation, another accused Altaf Pathan disclosed that present applicants have also involvement in the said crime. That means on the basis of statement of the accused, the Police want to arrest the present applicants. Learned counsel submits that in the First Information Report, name of the present applicants are not mentioned, nor any role is attributed to them. There was no connecting material with the Police to connect the present applicants with the crime. Their custodial interrogation is not necessary.

4. Per contra, the learned APP strongly opposed the application and submitted that as per the police report, the co- accused Noorkhan Pathan was found to be transporting the banned Gutka / Tobacco. The purpose for which Gutka is banned in the State of Maharashtra is well known and it is in the interest of public health. However, the information has been given by the co-accused Altaf Pathan that there was involvement of the present applicants in the said offence. Therefore, custody of the applicants is required to reveal as to how they deal in such hazardous goods which are causing health problems to the generations.

5. Before proceeding further, it will not be out of place to mention that there are two sets of decisions which say that offence under Section 328 of the Indian Penal Code cannot be said to have been made out and another set of decisions say that under these circumstances as regards Gutka or scented betel-nut Section 328 of the Indian Penal Code would be attracted. In Anand Ramdhani Chaurasia and another vs. State of Maharashtra, 2019 SCC OnLine Bom. 1857, and in Anticipatory Bail Application No. 944 of 2020 with companion matters, decided on 30th September, 2021 aba1465.21 (Coram:V.G. BISHT, J.), whereby in similar situations the applicants therein who have been arrested holding or possessing Gutka, have been released on anticipatory bail, holding that offence under Section 328 of the Indian Penal Code has not been made out. Ratio laid down in Joseph Kuruian Philip Jose vs. State of Kerala, (1994) 6 SCC 535 was relied.

6. At the outset, it is to be noted that though this Court (Coram:V.G. BISHT, J.) in the aforesaid Judgment and order in Anticipatory Bail Application No.944 of 2020 with companion matters, had come to the conclusion that in such facts of the cases offence under Section 328 of the Indian Penal Code cannot be said to have been made out, there is another set of decision in Anticipatory Bail Application No.1405 of 2021 with companion matters, decided by this Court (Coram:

PRAKASH D. NAIK, J.) on 23rd December 2021, wherein it has been held that in such cases offence under Section 328 of the Indian Penal Code can be said to have been made out and hence certain applications were rejected and certain applications came to be withdrawn when disinclination was shown by the Court. In both the matters, mainly decisions of this Court in Anand Ramdhari Chaurasia and another vs. State of Maharashtra aba1465.21 (supra) and in Ganesh Pandurang Jadhav vs. State of Maharashtra (Criminal Writ Petition No.1027 of 2015 with companion matters) were referred and note was taken that Hon'ble Apex Court has stayed the decisions of this Court. Those were the cases in which the First Information Reports were sought to be quashed under Section 482 of the Code of Criminal Procedure Code on the ground that offence under Section 328 of the Indian Penal Code has not been made out. However, note of other two decisions by the Division Bench of this Court were also taken. One is in the case of Vasim S/o Jamil Shaikh vs. State of Maharashtra and another in Criminal Application No. 4353 of 2016 decided on 29th November 2018, wherein this Court was also one of the party, (CORAM: T.V. NALAWADE AND SMT. VIBHA KANKANWADI, JJ.), and in that decision view was taken that the contention of the applicant that in such cases provisions of Section 328 of the Indian Penal Code cannot be used, is unacceptable. Thereafter, there is also case of Zahir Ibrahim Panja and others vs. State of Maharashtra and others (Criminal Application No.4968 of 2016) decided on 16th October 2018, wherein it was held that Section 328 of the Indian Penal Code can be invoked in such cases.

7. As regards the decision in Joseph Kurian Philip Jose is concerned, it was referred in Anand Ramdhari Chaurasia (supra), wherein Vasim Shaikh's case (supra) was held to be per incuriam in view of Joseph Kurian Philip Jose. However, the position stands and it has been so considered in Anticipatory Bail Application No.1405 of 2021 (supra) that the said decision has been stayed by the Apex Court and therefore, this Court would agree with the reasons given by this Court (CORAM: PRAKASH D. NAIK, J.) in Anticipatory Bail Application No.1405 of 2021 with companion matters, decided on 23rd December 2021.

8. In spite of the fact that in such cases offence under Section 328 of the Indian Penal Code can be invoked, now it is required to be seen, whether there is any material to connect present applicants with the crime. Again it can be observed that in Anticipatory Bail Application No.1405 of 2021 with companion matters, this Court had come to the conclusion that the applicants therein were found possessing the banned articles and therefore it will not be a good case to release them. However, in the present case the applicants are not the persons in whose custody the banned articles were found. The name of aba1465.21 the present applicants are not appearing in the First Information Report, however, in the remand report it is stated that on the statement made by the accused who was apprehended, the name of the present applicants were revealed as the persons having involvement in the said offence. However, the said report is silent about exact role of the applicants alleged by the prosecution. No specific role is attributed to the present applicants. On the basis of statement of co-accused, Police want to arrest present applicants. The evidentiary value to the statement of the co-accused is nil. That means, it cannot be considered at all. Therefore, custodial interrogation of the applicants is not required for the purpose of investigation. The investigation can still go on if the attendance is directed to be given and therefore, the interim protection granted earlier deserves to be confirmed. Hence the following order:-

i) Application stands allowed.

ii) The interim protection granted to the applicants by this Court vide order dated 11th January 2022 stands confirmed. It is clarified that in the event of arrest of applicant No.1 - Shaikh aba1465.21 Gaffar S/o Shaikh Makdum and applicant No.2 - Ferozkhan S/o Wahabkhan Pathan in connection with Crime No.430 of 2021 registered with Police Station, Gangakhed, District-Parbhani, for the offence punishable under Sections 188, 272, 273, 328 of the Indian Penal Code and Section 59 of the Food Safety and Standards Act, they be released on bail on PR Bond of Rs.30,000/- (Rupees Thirty Thousand) each with two solvent sureties of Rs.15,000/- (Rupees Fifteen Thousand) each.

iii) Applicants shall attend Police Station, Gangakhed on every Monday and Thursday between 10.00 a.m. to 2.00 p.m. till filing of the charge-sheet and co-operate with the investigation.

iv) Applicants shall not tamper with the evidence of the prosecution in any manner.
